

“Right to Work” is political overreach at its worst. Politicians shouldn’t interfere with agreements made between employers and their employees.

“RIGHT TO WORK” IS WRONG

Instead politicians should respect those agreements and focus on real priorities like creating good jobs and investing in education and infrastructure.

West Virginia AFL-CIO

American Federation of Labor – Congress of Industrial Organizations
Kenny Perdue, President – Josh Sword, Secretary-Treasurer