The West Virginia AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education (COPE) met February 27th in Charleston finalizing candidate endorsements for the 2010 Primary Election.

The WV AFL-CIO State COPE committee is comprised of representatives from every affiliated International Union in West Virginia, representatives from Trade and Industrial Councils, Central Labor Councils and West Virginia AFL-CIO Executive Board Members.

An endorsement by the West Virginia AFL-CIO State COPE follows recommendations from Central Labor Councils located in 13 cities around the state. Labor Council members review incumbent's voting records, (on issues concerning working families), followed by an interview of candidates who have successfully completed the WV AFL-CIO questionnaire.
